Choose any 15 words from the spelling review list, and write age-level sentences with those words. Write them or type them on a separate sheet.

* Each sentence must effectively use a semicolon.

* For extra credit, put in PD words, figurative language, homophone groups, alliteration/assonance, Outsiders dialect, dialogue, etc.

examples:

At the party, Fred's dad jubilantly played music on his phonograph; everybody felt like they were back in the 1960s.

Because she imprudently refused to pay her bill, the ominous creditor blared at Marci, "You owe us a ton of money; pay up now!"

Benevolent Brian showed humility when he gave his Christmas gift to a homeless child; the boy bellowed, "This is the best gift ever!"
